DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Applicant has not complied with one or more conditions for receiving the benefit of an earlier filing date under 35 U.S.C. 120 as follows:

An application in which the benefits of an earlier application are desired must contain a specific reference to the prior application(s) in the first sentence(s) of the specification or in an application data sheet by identifying the prior application by application number (37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) and (a)(5)). If the prior application is a non-provisional application, the specific reference must also include the relationship (i.e., continuation, divisional, or continuation-in-part) between the applications except when the reference is to a prior application of a CPA assigned the same application number.

Specifically, the cross-reference to related applications in the specification p. 1 lines 7-12 should be amended to reflect this application's status as a continuation-in-part of PCT/US01/23163 and a continuation of PCT/US01/51156 (see the claim for 35 U.S.C. 120 benefit in the declaration).

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

3. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it is more than 150 words in length and in multiple paragraphs. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Applicants have not yet defined the claimed term "elastomeric shear layer". One of ordinary skill in the art would expect the definition to be the same as set forth in applicants' prior application 10/081,571 now US Patent 6,769,465 B2: the run-flat insert is structurally supported (nonpneumatic) and the "elastomeric shear layer" is a layer of elastomer having a shear modulus of elasticity sufficiently lower than the longitudinal tensile modulus of elasticity of the first and second membranes such that, under an externally applied load, the elastomeric outer contacting portion deforms from essentially a circular shape to a flat shape while maintaining an essentially constant length of the membranes - relative displacement of the membranes occurs by shear in the shear layer (col. 2 lines 23-44); for purposes of this examination the claims will be understood to require this definition, however correction is required.

Claim Objections

6. Claims 10 and 16 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. Claim 1 already requires the runflat insert to be mounted in an assembly comprising a pneumatic tire and a wheel rim (claim 10) and already requires the carboxylic acid to be unsaturated (claim 16).

Double Patenting

7. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

8. Claims 1-29 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 18, and 21-25 of copending Application No. 10/757,065 in view of US Patent Application Publication 2004/0187996 A1. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use the elastomeric shear layer in the structurally-supported resilient tire structure of US Patent Application Publication 2004/0187996 A1 (see claims 1, 3-19, and 21-26) as the elastomeric shear layer in copending 10/757,065 in order to perform the required shearing function.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection.
